PREAMBLE

The apostolate of Catholic education has the person of Jesus Christ as its origin and continues his ministry and mission in the world by seeking to prepare students for their earthly vocation as good citizens in society and their ultimate vocation of eternal life with God.

Since the beginnings of Catholic schooling in Australia different governance arrangements were developed by the Bishops, priests and religious to sustain and foster the apostolate. At the start of the 21st century the apostolate had grown to comprise nearly 600 schools in 11 territorial dioceses in New South Wales serving approximately 1 in 5 students in the State.

The size and complexity of the apostolate in each diocese, the civil compliance requirements of Federal and State governments and a desire for a more collaborative style of ministry has now led the Archbishops and Diocesan Bishops of Sydney, Canberra and Goulburn, Armidale, Bathurst, Broken Bay, Lismore, Maitland-Newcastle, Parramatta, Wagga Wagga, Wilcannia Forbes and Wollongong to establish a company known as Catholic Schools NSW Limited to further sustain and foster Catholic education into the future through excellence in governance practice.

While each Bishop has operational responsibility for the Catholic schools in their diocese and autonomy regarding teaching and sanctifying in them, they mandate Catholic Schools NSW Ltd to ensure compliance of their diocesan school system in relation to Federal and State government funding and legislative requirements and reporting against a range of efficiency and effectiveness indicators relating to the provision of Catholic education.

Catholic Schools NSW Ltd as a company established by the Bishops and responsible to them, is therefore the Province entity for Catholic education in NSW. The entity seeks the benefit of Catholic schools in NSW regardless of location or need. Among the many means of seeking that benefit is the encouragement and fostering of greater collaboration at different levels among all Christ's faithful who share actively in the apostolate of Catholic education throughout NSW.

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." Matthew 28:20
